APPLICATION BROCHURE AND FORM
THE NIPPON FOUNDATION FELLOWSHIPS
FOR ASIAN PUBLIC INTELLECTUALS
API FELLOWSHIPS PROGRAM

THE API FELLOWSHIPS PROGRAM

WHAT IS THE API FELLOWSHIPS PROGRAM?

It is a fellowships program that provides a grant to successful applicants to carry out a project during the fellowship period of one month to one year in a country or countries participating in the API Fellowships Program (currently confined to Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, the Philippines, and Thailand).

WHAT ARE API SENIOR FELLOWSHIPS AND API FELLOWSHIPS?

The fellowships are offered under two categories: API Senior Fellowships and API Fellowships.

The API Senior Fellowships are meant for those with an established track record as a public intellectual and who are at least 40 years of age, as of August 31, 2011. The fellowship period should be a minimum of one month to a maximum of twelve months in up to four of the countries participating in the API Fellowships Program (Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, the Philippines and Thailand).

The API Fellowships are for those under 40 years of age as of August 31, 2011. The fellowship period should be a minimum of four months to a maximum of twelve months in one or two of the countries participating in the API Fellowships Program (Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, the Philippines and Thailand).

For both categories, the fellowship period must be continuous. The minimum period of visit to a Participating Country where the proposed research project and/or professional activities are conducted is one month and cannot include the native country or country of residence.

WHAT CAN I DO AS A PROJECT?

The project may take several forms: a research paper, a film, a series of journalistic articles, data gathering, building networks, a work of art, etc.; but it must fulfill the following three conditions:

- It must NOT be part of your regular employment output;
- It must contribute to the goals of the API Fellowships Program, and must fit in with the API themes (please refer to page 3);
- It must have a tangible output (a research paper, a film, a photo essay, etc.).

The project must be carried out in one or more of the API Participating Countries (Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, the Philippines and Thailand), but NOT in your native country or country of residence.

While Cambodia, Laos, and Vietnam have become members of the API Fellowships Program from 2010 and Fellowships have been awarded to applicants from these countries, these three countries are not as yet available as the country/ies in which to conduct projects.

You will need to identify one institution as the Host Institution in the country or countries where you will be going to on your project. The Host Institution will be your institution of affiliation for your fellowship period in the country.

The fellowship period is from July 1, 2012 to July 31, 2013. Thus, the research project or professional activities can start on or after July 1, 2012 and should end on or before July 31, 2013.

WHO CAN APPLY?

Anyone involved in the production and exchange of knowledge or ideas in line with the goals of the API Fellowships Program can apply. This includes academics, researchers, media professionals, artists, writers, NGO workers, social workers, public servants, and others who work for the betterment of society.

You will need sufficient knowledge of the English language to conduct your project and to share the results with the wider audience afterwards.

WHAT ARE THE GOALS OF THE API FELLOWSHIPS PROGRAM?

The API Fellowships Program aims to:

- Create and nurture a community of public intellectuals in Asia,
- Promote mutual learning among Asian public intellectuals, and
- Contribute to the growth of public spaces in which effective responses to regional needs can be generated.

In selecting Fellows, the API Fellowships Program will favor those whose projects address critical issues in the region, use creative and multidisciplinary approaches, and have some element of advocacy.

WHAT ARE THE API THEMES FOR THIS YEAR?

- Changing Identities and Their Social, Historical, and Cultural Contexts
- Reflections on the Human Condition and the Search for Social Justice
- Globalization: Structures, Processes, and Alternatives

WHAT IS THE API COMMUNITY?

The API Community consists of (1) all recipients of the API Senior Fellowships or the API Fellowships, who have finished their fellowship activities and participated in the API Regional Workshop, and (2) everyone involved in the API Fellowships Program as selection committee members, Program Directors, and Coordinators. This growing community now numbers more than 300 individuals of varied backgrounds, but with a shared commitment. Members meet in local and cross-country functions, as well as through informal networks and collaborative projects at the national and the regional levels.

WHAT DOES THE API FELLOWSHIPS PROGRAM PROVIDE?

- A stipend and housing allowance during the fellowship period. The amount varies by country and the length of the fellowship.
- International transportation costs for one round trip.
- Domestic transportation allowance.
- Research allowance to cover computer costs, field expenses, books, translation fees, etc.
- Travel insurance during the fellowship period.

HOW ARE API FELLOWS CHOSEN?

In each Participating Country (Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, the Philippines and Thailand), there is a selection committee comprised of established public intellectuals. This committee evaluates all the applications, invites a shortlist for interview, and sends its recommendations to an International Selection Committee which makes the final decision. The selection procedure is confidential.

WHAT IS THE SCHEDULE FOR THE SELECTION PROCESS?

- The application period is from July 1, 2011 to August 31, 2011.
- Interviews will take place in September/October 2011*.
- The results will be announced in February 2012.

* There will be no make-up interview if the applicant is not able to attend the interview on the designated date. Therefore, those who cannot be present on the interview day will be automatically dropped from the selection process.

SELECTED FELLOWS WILL BE REQUIRED:

- To attend the Orientation and Country Workshop in February/March 2012.
- To carry out the project within the time frame of July 1, 2012 to July 31, 2013.
- To attend the annual API Regional Workshop to be held in November 2013.
- To present the results of the project through papers and other materials.
- To disseminate the results of the project to a wider audience, whenever possible.
- To submit a final Workshop Paper for publication after the API Regional Workshop.

By fulfilling all commitments above, you will become a member of the API Community. You will be expected to participate in the various activities of the Community, and you will have opportunities to apply for post-fellowship programs.

WHERE CAN I GET MORE INFORMATION?

Kindly visit the API website (www.api-fellowships.org) and the website of the Partner Institution in your country (see the section "Partner Institutions"). Contact the Partner Institution directly should you have any questions.

Note: Please take careful note of the projects conducted by Fellows in previous years, which you can find from the API website (<http://www.api-fellowships.org/body/profile.php>). Try to avoid doing a project that is overly similar to any one of them.

WHERE DO I APPLY?

Apply to the Partner Institution in your native country or country of residence. Refer to pages 9 and 10 for further details on Partner Institutions.

PLEASE NOTE!

- You may NOT apply for an API Fellowship for a project in your native country and/or country of residence (if different from the native country). While Cambodia, Laos, and Vietnam have become members of API, these three countries are not yet available for the conduct of projects.
- You need to identify a Host Institution in the country/ies where you propose to carry out your research project.
- Your application must be typewritten. Handwritten applications will not be processed.
- The selection procedure is confidential.
- There will be no make-up interview if the applicant is not able to attend the interview on the designated date. Those who cannot be present on the interview day will be automatically dropped from the selection process.
- Any misrepresentations made willfully or otherwise, in the application or accompanying documents, may be cause for the revocation of a Fellowship grant at any time.
- It is mandatory to attend the Orientation and Country Workshop on the designated date once you are selected as API Fellow.
- Costs for the proper visas and/or research permits in the country/ies where the research project is to be carried out will have to be covered by the Fellow.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

---

The API Fellowships Program has two categories: API Senior Fellowships and API Fellowships. The categorization is based essentially on the age of the applicant.

GENERAL ELIGIBILITY FOR BOTH THE API SENIOR FELLOWSHIPS AND API FELLOWSHIPS

- Applicants must hold a proper residence status of one of the five Participating Countries and reside in the country (Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, the Philippines and Thailand) at the time of the application;
